Introduction

The Presbytery shall elect a Committee on Ministry to accomplish the oversight of ministries in the Presbytery as mandated in the Book of Order.

The Committee on Ministry shall consist of twenty-one (21) members nominated by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Presbytery, in three classes of seven members each for three-year terms. Membership shall consist (as nearly as possible) of equal numbers of teaching elders and ruling elders. Sub-committees will consist of: Examinations & Validations; Care of Congregations, Care of Church Professionals and Commissioned Ruling Elders.

A quorum shall be at least a majority (11) of the membership of the committee.

The General Presbyter shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

In order to fulfill its Book of Order mandate, this Committee shall have the authority of the Presbytery to: (See Manual of the Presbytery of East Tennessee)

- find in order calls issued by churches,
- approve and present calls for services of teaching elders in installed positions,
- approve temporary pastoral relationships, i.e., stated supply, temporary supply, interim, and commissioned ruling elder in particular pastoral service
- examine and present for membership teaching elders transferring from other presbyteries,
- dissolve the pastoral relationship in cases where the congregation and pastor concur,
- grant permission to labor within or outside the bounds of the Presbytery,
- dismiss teaching elders to other presbyteries,
- approve the ordination and/or installation commissions for teaching elders
- approve the commissioning commissions for ruling elders
- approve teaching elders going onto the field before the next presbytery meeting with the provision that all such actions shall be reported to the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

[The term Teaching Elder and Minister of Word and Sacrament and the term Commissioned Ruling Elder and Commissioned Lay Pastor are used interchangeably.]

Responsibilities as Pastor, Advisor and Counselor

The Committee shall serve as an instrument of Presbytery for promoting the peace and harmony of the churches, especially in regard to matters arising out of the relations between teaching elders and/or commissioned ruling elders and churches.

The Committee on Ministry shall be informed as to the difficulties within a local congregation. When difficulties arise, the Committee shall carefully proceed as to counseling with the teaching elder(s), CRE(s) and/or session and/or congregation, either on its own or seeking the advice and counsel of the full Presbytery

The Committee on Ministry shall see that care and counseling shall be available for teaching elders, commissioned ruling elders, and other certified church professionals, their spouses and families. Further, it shall see that pastoral care is given to retired teaching elders and other church professionals, and, especially, teaching elders suffering from disabilities and infirmities, and their families.

The Committee on Ministry shall see that appropriate recognition is given to teaching elders and other certified church professionals upon their retirement.

The Committee on Ministry shall be the liaison with the Board of Pensions of the PC(USA).

The Committee on Ministry shall make annual salary and benefit recommendations for teaching elders and certified church educators, and to see that all calls meet or exceed Presbytery's minimum standards.

The Committee shall report to the Presbytery annually the type of work in which each teaching elder and Certified Educator of the Presbytery is engaged. For any teaching elder performing work which is not under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery or a higher governing body or agency of the Church, this committee shall require an annual progress report.

The Committee on Ministry shall counsel with teaching elders who regularly fail to attend the meetings of the Presbytery.

The Committee on Ministry will conduct exit interviews with all pastors leaving permanent pastoral relationships and with the Session of that church.

In matters related to pastoral care, the Committee on Ministry will work in cooperation with the Support Mission Team.

Permanent Pastoral Relationships

Establishing Relationships:

This Committee shall make recommendations to the Presbytery regarding calls for the services of its teaching elders.

It shall counsel with churches regarding calls for permanent pastoral relations, and with every committee elected to nominate a pastor or associate pastor. It shall advise the pastor nominating committee (PNC) on the merits and availability of any candidate or teaching elder whose name is considered for nomination to the congregation, and shall have the privilege of suggesting possible names to each church's pastor nominating committee. No call to a permanent pastoral relationship shall be in order for consideration by the Presbytery unless the church has received and considered this Committee's counsel and until a candidate has undergone a reference check initiated by the PNC in consultation with the COM liaison and the general presbyter. In addition no call will be in order until a criminal, civil and financial background check has been reviewed by the general presbyter/moderator of Committee on Ministry.

The Committee on Ministry shall appoint a liaison to each church to advise and counsel the church and the pastor nominating committee in its search for pastoral leadership (See Role of the Liaison in Time of Pastoral Transition in the Appendix.).

The Committee on Ministry shall appoint a moderator of the Session for each church without a pastor.

The Committee on Ministry shall examine all candidates for permanent pastoral relationships (for ordination and/or installation) in accordance with the Book of Order (See the Examinations Policy in the Appendix of this Handbook.).

The Committee on Ministry shall appoint a mentor for each pastor new to the Presbytery of East Tennessee for a period of at least one year. The CRE committee will appoint mentors for all CREs commissioned to service. Please see guidelines in the Appendix.

The committee is commissioned by the Presbytery to act on behalf of the Presbytery to select Ordination/Installation Commissions for teaching elders and commissioning commissions for commissioned ruling elders in particular pastoral service. Pastors and congregations are encouraged to remember that these services are acts of the presbytery and to schedule such services at times when members of the presbytery may attend.

Dissolving Relationships

The Committee on Ministry may dissolve the pastoral relationship in cases where the congregation and pastor concur, reporting to the presbytery at its next stated meeting.

The Committee on Ministry shall conduct exit interviews with pastors and associate pastors and with Sessions in congregations in which a pastoral relationship has been dissolved.

Temporary Pastoral Relationships

In accordance with the Book of Order, The Committee on Ministry shall counsel with sessions with temporary pastoral relationships when a church is without a pastor. All relationships which are not installed pastor or associate pastor are considered "temporary; these relationships may include those known as interim pastor, stated supply pastor, temporary supply pastor, designated pastor, or parish associate.

The Committee on Ministry shall provide lists of pastors and qualified lay persons to supply vacant pulpits.

In the case of a church requesting a person to fill a temporary pastoral relationship, and the Committee on Ministry rejecting that application, the church shall have the right to appeal the Committee's decision to the entire Presbytery.

Validated Ministries

The Committee on Ministry shall have the responsibility to validate the ministry of all ordained clergy-within the Presbytery, especially those persons involved in specialized ministries.

Commissioned Ruling Elders in particular pastoral service

Appendix A: Requirements for CREs

REQUIREMENTS FOR COMMISSIONING OF RULING ELDERS IN PARTICULAR PASTORAL SERVICE IN THE PRESBYTERY OF EAST TENNESSEE

The purpose of these policies and guidelines is to establish minimum requirements for commissioning ruling elders to particular pastoral service (Commissioned Ruling Elders, henceforth referred to as CRE OR Commissioned Lay Pastors, should the language be restored to its original language, henceforth referred to as CLP), and the continuing education and supervision of commissioned ruling elders serving in the bounds of the Presbytery of East Tennessee (PET).

STRUCTURE –

The CRE/CLP Sub-committee of the PET shall administer the CRE/CLP training program and its work under the oversight of the Committee on Ministry (COM). The CRE/CLP Sub-committee shall be composed of at least six (6) persons. The committee shall contain a liaison member to the COM, and there shall be at least one Teaching Elder/Minister of the Word and Sacrament on the committee.

BOOK OF ORDER REQUIREMENTS --

The Book of Order establishes criteria for the equipping of CREs and their ongoing accountability to the PET. The PET, in order to facilitate its responsibilities to our CRE/CLP program, highlights these particular requirements:

1. CREs/CLPs are ruling elders of PC(USA) who are commissioned to lead worship and to preach the gospel, watch over the people and provide for their nurture and service.
2. In addition CREs/CLPs may be able to carry out some or all of the following functions, contingent upon the recommendation of the CRE/CLP Sub-Committee that they are needed to further the mission of a particular church.
 - A. Administer the Lord's Supper.
 - B. Administer the Sacrament of Baptism.
 - C. Moderate the session of the congregation to which the CRE/CLP is commissioned.
 - D. Perform a service of Christian marriage when invited by the session or other responsible committee, and when allowed by the state.

CREs/CLPs also have these privileges, according to the PET Manual:

- A. Have a voice in meetings of PET.
 - B. Have a vote in meetings of PET (such vote to be counted as an elder commissioner for purposes of parity).
3. The PET shall be responsible for the commissioning of all CREs/CLPs.
 4. The PET, through its CRE/CLP Sub-committee, shall train and equip candidates for the work of CRE/CLP in Particular Pastoral Service. Candidates who wish to apply through their churches' sessions to receive training in another way, such as through a seminary-sponsored program, may offer to the CRE/CLP Sub-committee all information about that program, including a syllabus of each course and grading procedures. Candidates wishing to pursue this option will be considered on a case by case basis. The coursework and the required hours must, at the least, fulfill the minimum requirements set forth under preparation requirements.
 5. Elders commissioned in another presbytery who wish to pursue a commissioning in the PET must submit to the CRE/CLP Sub-committee the following information and may be requested to submit further documentation at the discretion of the CRE/CLP Sub-committee:
 - A. A CREif (a form will be furnished to them).
 - B. A letter detailing the required coursework and grading requirements of the program in which they were trained.
 - C. A letter of good standing from their home presbytery.
 - D. A statement offering their reasons for seeking a commissioning in the PET.
 - E. If established, a letter from the session of their new home church within the bounds of the PET.
 6. The PET, through its COM, shall provide for the examination of those who have satisfactorily completed the course work to be CREs/CLPs. Candidates for commissioning shall be examined by the COM regarding:
 - A. Their personal faith.
 - B. Their motives for seeking the commission.
 - C. The areas of instruction referred in preparation requirements.

This examination at the completion of training, if successful, will acknowledge the ruling elder as "eligible to be commissioned."

At such time as the ruling elder “eligible to be commissioned” is called to be commissioned to a specific function in a congregation or other validated ministry, the ruling elder and the calling entity shall follow the guidelines of the Committee on Ministry who will have responsibility to recommend (or not) the commissioning of the ruling elder to a specific function and will approve a commissioning service.

7. A candidate for CRE/CLP shall sign the Sexual Misconduct Policy of the PET each time s/he is commissioned to a particular “call.” All CREs/CLPs in active service must attend a Misconduct Prevention seminar at least once every three years. This seminar is sponsored by PET each year.
8. A CRE/CLP serving in an on-going relationship in a church shall be supervised by the PET through its CRE/CLP Sub-committee, who will appoint a teaching elder in the Presbytery as a mentor-supervisor. CRE’s/CLP’s will be given an opportunity to request a mentor-supervisor if they have one with whom they would like to work.
9. One or more continuing education events shall be required per year, encompassing no fewer than six (6) contact hours. The CRE/CLP Sub-Committee of PET shall offer or recommend one or more education events each year that will fulfill this requirement and keep accurate records of attendance. All CREs/CLPs are encouraged and expected to participate in the event(s). Other courses, conferences, workshops, or events may be substituted for the scheduled continuing education event with prior approval of the CRE/CLP Sub-committee.

PROCESS FOR COMMISSIONING –

An individual wishing to be a CRE/CLP shall make application through his/her respective session to the CRE/CLP Sub-committee of the PET. The form for this application shall be provided by the PET. The CRE/CLP Sub-committee, having satisfied itself regarding the validity of the request, shall supervise the preparation of the candidate. Upon successful completion of the required preparation, the CRE/CLP Sub-committee, shall present the candidate to the COM for examination, and upon successful completion of that examination, the COM shall certify the candidate as eligible to receive a commission and shall present the candidate to be recognized by the PET. When an opportunity for service is found, which the COM deems appropriate for commissioning, the COM shall present the candidate to the PET for examination and commissioning as outlined in the Book of Order.

A ruling elder who has been commissioned and later ceases to serve in the specified ministry may continue to be listed as available to serve, but is not authorized to perform the functions specified in the Book of Order until commissioned again to a congregation or validated ministry by the PET.

WHO MAY PARTICIPATE IN THE TRAINING PROGRAM –

The PET will accept applications to become a CRE/CLP from ruling elders, who have completed at least three years of active service, in the churches in the PET and who have been recommended by their sessions and pastors. Ruling elders from another presbytery who make application through their sessions and pastors and with the approval of the appropriate body of their home presbytery, and with the approval of the CRE/CLP Sub-committee of the PET may participate in the program with the goal of commissioning in their home presbytery.

Ruling elders who have completed at least three years of active service in a PCUSA church located in another presbytery and are now active members of a church in the PET may make application to the program through the recommendation of their new session and pastor. The CRE/CLP Sub-committee will consider each application on an individual basis and has the prerogative to require recommendations from the elder's previous home church.

PREPARATION REQUIREMENTS –

- A. All ruling elders applying to the CRE/CLP program must attend an orientation/career development seminar before acceptance to the program is confirmed.
- B. Preparation requirements shall consist of four (4) course periods of at least 30 hours each amounting to a cumulative total of at least 120 hours and completion of a three month internship, the particulars of which will be decided in planning with each ruling elder.

These courses shall be led by qualified, regularly ordained seminary graduate members in good standing with the PET or by other highly qualified teachers at the discretion of the CRE/CLP Sub-committee and the approval of the PET, and shall normally be held in the Spring and Fall of each year with a complete cycle occurring every two years. Each session shall be held in a location most convenient to those candidates who enroll and to the instructor. Required subject areas are:

1. Biblical studies and teaching.
2. Reformed theology.
3. Presbyterian polity and pastoral care (including Sexual Misconduct Guidelines).

4. Worship leadership, preaching, and sacraments.

Courses shall be taken, when possible, in the order listed above and no auditing of courses will be accepted.

Successful completion of each course requires the following:

1. The attendance and participation by the candidate in a minimum of three-fourths (3/4s) of the class sessions. Missed class work must be made up with and to the satisfaction of the course instructor. Class roll will be taken by the instructor to facilitate this process.
2. The candidate's written (or oral -- under special circumstances) answers to representative questions concerning the course work. These answers shall be evaluated and approved by the instructor at the end of the course period. The instructor will provide the CRE/CLP Sub-committee with a list of those candidates receiving credit for the subject area along with the questions and answers used in the evaluation. These questions and answers can be used in the examination by the COM prior to commissioning by the PET.
3. The CRE/CLP Sub-committee shall not present a candidate to the COM for examination if all of the requirements are not met in a satisfactory manner. With the guidance of the CRE/CLP Sub-committee and/or an appointed mentor, the candidate(s) not approved for examination shall be asked to consider prayerfully his/her place in the program. S/he shall be asked to perform specific tasks and/or address specific areas of concern that need to be pursued or fulfilled before being examined for commissioning as a CRE/CLP.

GENERAL INFORMATION

CREs/CLPs are subject to the following guidelines:

1. CREs/CLPs may administer the sacraments of the Lord's Supper and Baptism, moderate sessions, and perform marriages when permission for such is requested by the session of a particular church and granted by the COM.
2. CREs/CLPs shall be compensated at no less than the current rate approved by PET when engaged by a session for particular pastoral service.

3. CRE/CLP may enter into a covenant relationship with a particular church upon request of the session and upon the approval of the COM. A covenant agreement between the church, the CRE/CLP, and the COM shall be drawn up and should follow the example of the Covenant with a Commissioned Ruling Elder/Commissioned Lay Pastor which may be found on the PET website under Resources. Such an agreement shall include an annual review of the relationship by the COM, the CRE/CLP and the church.
4. The work of CREs/CLPs must be reviewed on an annual basis. This review includes:
 - A. The will of the CRE/CLP to continue.
 - B. The submission of an annual report to the COM and the CRE/CLP Sub-committee.
 - C. The fulfillment of the continuing education requirement.
 - D. An encouragement to the CRE/CLP to stay connected to the life of his/her home church.
5. A CRE/CLP who is commissioned to the church of which s/he is a member may not be an active member of the session during the time of his/her commission with the church.

Appendix D: Sabbatical Policy

Sabbatical Leave Policy For Teaching Elders and Certified Educators in the Presbytery of East Tennessee

Sabbatical--Definition

The word "sabbatical" comes from the Hebrew word "Shabbat" (Sabbath), meaning "cease" and "rest," but in the Biblical understanding it means more than just a day off. It is a day consecrated to God, when God's people cease to do ordinary labor, but instead rest, worship, and enjoy God's creation. In the academic life, sabbaticals are extended Sabbaths, times apart from ordinary duties for the purpose of further education and research in one's field. In recent years many churches have begun to grant periodic sabbatical leave to pastors and other professional workers. They find that by granting a few months away from the demands of parish life, these church professionals may fill their spiritual/emotional/ intellectual "bucket" and thus return with renewed energy, creativity, vision and enthusiasm in the ministry. Granting sabbaticals is an investment in the quality of ministry, as well as in the length of time a minister will stay in a particular congregation. By committing ourselves to supporting on-going and serious spiritual reflection, learning, and renewal on the part of its professionals, the church takes steps toward its own faithfulness and growth.

Sabbatical--Recommendations

The Presbytery of East Tennessee recommends that the sessions of its churches grant paid sabbaticals of at least three (3) months to its Teaching Elders and Certified Christian Educators during every 7th consecutive year of service to that particular church, and that time spent on sabbatical not be counted against annual vacation leave.

Toward that desired end, the Presbytery requires that, at the end of every four (4) year cycle of service to the church (ordinarily in years 4, 11, 18, etc), church professionals and sessions discuss a possible sabbatical, taking the needs of the professional and the church into consideration. A member of Presbytery's Committee on Ministry (COM) will be made available to any session needing education in regard to the consideration or planning of a sabbatical.

A session-level discussion of a possible sabbatical shall begin immediately for any church professional who already has over six (6) consecutive years of service in his/her church, if no sabbatical has been granted in that period of service.

Should the session approve a sabbatical for its church professional, the Presbytery recommends that the following steps be taken:

1. That the church professional provide to the session, at least 6 months prior to the sabbatical, a rough draft of her/his sabbatical plan for feedback and approval, including personal goals, benefits for the church professional and the church, travel, activities, anticipated expenses and funding, and provision for leadership of the congregation during the sabbatical, and that the final plan be reviewed and approved by COM.
2. That the church professional and the session meet soon after the completion of the sabbatical, and share together their different experiences during the sabbatical, along with lessons learned and insights gained, and submit a written summary of that discussion to COM.
3. That the church professional serve the same church at least one (1) year after the end of the sabbatical unless extenuating circumstances arise, so that the church shares fully in all the gain that has come as a result of the sabbatical.

Sabbatical--Rationale

We are concerned about the high rate of burnout among our church professionals, and wish to address this problem in a practical way. Roy Oswald, Senior Consultant of the Alban Institute, an ecumenical think-tank for the mainstream church, says that studies now identify the ordained ministry as the #1 burnout profession in the country(+). The primary cause of burnout among church professionals is, according to Oswald, "compassion fatigue."

We have also learned from Roy Oswald about the positive effects of long-term pastorates on congregations(++), and wish to do something practical that would encourage pastors to stay longer at their respective churches.

We believe, along with the Alban Institute, that the granting of periodic sabbaticals will provide the necessary rest, renewal and refreshment needed to help stem the tide of burnout among our church professionals and encourage them to stay longer in their respective churches.(++)

There is Biblical precedent for the granting of a sabbatical every seventh year in Leviticus 25:1-7, the text commanding Hebrew farmers to let their land lie fallow every seventh year, setting up a multi-year rhythm in human life consisting of six years of production followed by one year of rest.

This Biblically-based tradition of granting sabbaticals is one that has been maintained over the years in the academic world, and a practice that is growing in the business community and in the church.

Many universities and colleges throughout the country continue the long-standing tradition, dating back to when the academic world was part of the church, that grants professors an opportunity every seventh year to become students again and refresh their callings.

The popular press is reporting that large American corporations, such as Intel, Apple, McDonald's and Nike, have begun to grant sabbaticals to their executives after 4-7 years of service, and have found that these sabbaticals give these executives greater vision and make them more productive. Some companies even use sabbaticals now as an incentive to attract and retain good employees.

A growing number of churches and church governing bodies, including a number of other PCUSA Presbyteries, are beginning to develop formal sabbatical leave policies.

A number of churches in our own Presbytery have granted sabbaticals in the past decade, and the pastors and their churches have benefited from them.

Sabbatical—Funding

Churches may object that they do not have enough money to grant sabbatical leave to their pastors and church professionals.

We encourage congregations to make budget provisions for a sabbatical fund, contributing a certain amount to the fund each year until there is enough in the fund to finance a sabbatical.

Outside funding is also available to churches and their clergy through two competitive grant programs: the National Clergy Renewal Grant (through the Lilly Endowment) and the Sabbatical Grants for Pastoral Leaders Program (through the Louisville Institute, also funded by Lilly, and headquartered at Louisville Seminary).

Of the two grants, the National Clergy Renewal Grant is by far the most generous. This grant offers up to $30,000 to churches who want to offer their clergy a sabbatical. Up to $10,000 of this grant may be used by the congregation both to provide for pastoral services in the pastor's absence and to fund congregational renewal events. The remainder of the grant may be used to pay all expenses of the pastor and his/her family to attend various renewal events, and even to pay the federal and/or state taxes that accrue because of the grant. Over 100 of these grants are awarded annually to churches of all denominations, and the annual deadline for applying is in July of each year.

The Louisville Institute offers three different levels of grants for varying lengths of sabbaticals: $6,000 for six (6) weeks; $8,000 for eight (8) weeks; and $12,000 for twelve (12) weeks. Forty (40) of these grants are awarded each year, and the deadline for applying for these grants every year is in September of each year.

Sabbatical--Staffing

Many retired pastors, commissioned ruling elders and other lay leaders in the area, or in the local congregation, are available to serve a church on a short-term basis during a three-month sabbatical.

Appendix E: Separation Policy

SEPARATION POLICY

For Departing Ministers* and Their Former Congregations

Presbytery of East Tennessee

Pastors have privileged, precious and confidential relationships with congregations and their members. When a pastor's professional service to a congregation concludes, those privileged relationships, of necessity, must end.

Bonds of affection and friendship will remain between the minister and his/her family with church members. Friendship of a social nature may continue, but integrity to the ministry of the church and ongoing health of the community of the church requires that any pastoral relationship and service do not.

Pastoral concern for the congregation requires that, as a member accountable to the presbytery, the departing member and session are responsible for ensuring these separation policies are met. Failure to separate as described in this policy may be considered renunciation of jurisdiction resulting in loss of ordination status.

In order to provide that new and effective pastoral relationships may be called and established, the Presbytery affirms the following minimum standards of conduct:

- Former pastors will agree not to preach, lead worship, or provide pastoral functions such as presiding at sacraments, weddings and funerals.
- Any conversation including electronic communication with members regarding internal congregational matters, decisions or personalities is inappropriate.
- Keys to church property should be returned to the clerk of session and the minister should remain away from the property.
- Beware of social media participation and content, in which confidentiality cannot be assured.

The presbytery understands that separation from a congregation is a difficult transition for the people and may be especially stressful for the pastor and his/her spouse and family. For the pastor's family, physical separation is preferable, but in rare, select, controlled circumstances an ongoing association as a member may be useful to both the family and congregation. Ordained teaching elders are reminded that the presbytery continues to be their congregation and pastoral community.

Honorably retiring pastors and spouses may contribute richly to the life of other congregations and are encouraged to do so as they remain active participants in presbytery and the larger church.

After a new pastor is installed in a congregation, and at least a year has passed, a former pastor may on special occasions accept the invitation of the new pastor and session to co-officiate in ordinances and services of the church. At such time and in consultation with and concurrence of the installed pastor, further participation in the ordinary life of the congregation is permissible.

Presbytery through its Committee on Ministry reserves the power to advise and/or discipline pastors regarding their contacts with former congregations.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES ON SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Policy approved: September 19, 1995

Book of Order references and language updated July 2013

I. INTRODUCTION

Our sexuality is a gift from God and when rightly used helps lead to the wholeness of life which God intends for all people. Those who serve through the offices of the Church bear particular responsibility in making manifest the goodness of God's gift of sexuality.

SCRIPTURE states:

As God who called you is holy,
be holy yourselves in all your conduct.
Tend the flock of God that is your charge,
not under compulsion but willingly,
not for sordid gain but eagerly.
Do not lord it over those in your charge
but be examples to the flock.
You know that we who teach shall be judged with greater strictness.
Peter 1:15; 5:2; James 3:1 NRSV)

THE BOOK OF CONFESSIONS states:

"The relationship between man and woman exemplifies in a basic way God's ordering of the interpersonal life for which God created humankind. Anarchy in sexual relationships is a symptom of our alienation from God, neighbor, and self. The Church, as the household of God, is called to lead persons out of this alienation in to the responsible freedom of the new life in Christ. Reconciled to God each person has a joy in and a respect for one's own humanity and that of other persons...The church comes under the judgment of God and invites rejection by people when it fails to lead men and women into full meaning of life together, or withholds the compassion of Christ from those caught in the moral confusion of our time." (Confession of 1967, 9.47d)

THE BOOK OF ORDER states:

To those called to exercise special functions in the Church -- deacons, ruling elders, and teaching elders -- God gives suitable gifts for their various duties. In addition to possessing the necessary gifts and abilities, natural and acquired, those who undertake particular ministries should be persons of strong faith, dedicated discipleship, and love of Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel in the Church and in the World. They must have the approval of God's people and the concurring judgment of a council of the church.

(Gifts and Qualifications G-2.0104)

THE PRESBYTERY OF EAST TENNESSEE states:

We believe and proclaim that all people are created by God. God values all human life and intends that everyone -- children, women, and men -- have worth and dignity in all relationships. We further believe in justice for all persons. Sexual misconduct of religious leaders is an abuse of power and trust, and is, therefore, unjust. Scripture asserts that religious leadership involves a covenant relationship that presumes the trustworthy exercise of power in behalf of those in our care. A betrayal of this is more than just a personal tragedy for the victim. It reflects a tragic breakdown in the character of the abuser that seriously threatens, not only those immediately affected, but also the well-being of the Church itself.

THE PRESBYTERY OF EAST TENNESSEE proclaims that the Church can never be well served by overlooking an abuse of power and trust, that sexual misconduct is wrong and that charges of misconduct must be dealt with swiftly, fairly, and with compassion for both the accused and the accuser. In doing so, we are to remember "...the purpose of church discipline is...to preserve the purity of the Church by nourishing the individual within the life of the believing community, to correct or restrain wrongdoing in order to bring members to repentance and restoration..." (D-1.0101) It is ..."for building up the body of Christ, not for destroying it, for redeeming, not punishing. It should be exercised as a dispensation of mercy and not of wrath so that the great ends of the Church may be achieved..." (D-1.010). The purpose of this Policy is to define the position of THE PRESBYTERY OF EAST TENNESSEE on matters pertaining to sexual misconduct and to state Procedures to be followed in investigating and resolving allegations of misconduct. This Policy is intended as a supplement to the Rules of Discipline (RoD) of the Presbyterian Church (USA), in particular Chapter X, Disciplinary Cases (D-10.0000).

Appendix G: Social Media Policy

As pastors and church professionals we know that relationships with each other, congregation members, and colleagues in the presbytery and beyond matter. We know that healthy relationships come from good communication and care. In years past the avenues for communication were fewer and the modes much slower than today. With the advent of social media the modes of communication have greatly changed. Social media affords us great opportunities for positive communication yet inherent in it are the possibility of great pitfalls as well. In order to encourage the use of social media among pastors and church professionals to build positive relationships in their churches and larger church community, the Presbytery of East Tennessee adopts this social media policy.

- Social media is to be used responsibly and with care.
 - It is not a venue to vent frustrations about church happenings or church members.
 - It should never replace face to face communication.
 - Postings of a personal nature are to be positive and encouraging, not such that would call one's character into question.

- Social media – with all of its options – has the potential to enslave us. Be mindful of the time spent on social media so that it does not consume one's time such that authentic pastoral care and leadership suffer.

- Social media and the end of a pastoral relationship
 - Great care should be given in whether to remain social media “friends” with former parishioners. If the choice is to remain friends, then
 - Do not engage in conversations regarding the happenings of the congregation
 - Do not offer pastoral care in ways that seek to reinforce your pastoral relationship with the congregation
 - Honor the relationship developing between the interim and/or the newly -installed pastor
 - Should you choose to no longer remain media “friends” with former parishioners communicate that choice lovingly and pastorally prior to leaving.

The Committee on Ministry will adjudicate complaints about abuses of the letter and spirit of this social media policy.

Appendix H: Triennial Visits Guidelines

Adopted March 2010

I. PURPOSE OF THE VISITS:

The Presbytery's responsibility "to facilitate the relations between the presbytery and its congregations, teaching elders, ruling elders commissioned to pastoral service, and certified Christian educators" (Book of Order G.-3.0307) is accomplished in part through triennial visits to its sessions; these visits are carried out through the Committee on Ministry.

This is essentially a pastoral visit by the presbytery to its churches to affirm and support the good ministry being accomplished in the name of Christ, to ask questions and share information that will raise the vision of church leaders, to encourage them as they seek to respond to God's call, and to help them deal with problems that may exist.

II. THE COMMISSION FOR THE VISITS:

To express the character of Scripture.

"For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, that is, that we may be actually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine." (Romans 1:11-12 KJV)

To fulfill the Book of Order mandate to serve as Pastor, Counselor and Advisor to Teaching Elders and Congregations (G.-3.0307)

The Committee on Ministry shall visit with each session of the presbytery at least once every three years, discussing with them the mission and ministry of the particular church and encouraging the full participation of each session and congregation in the life and work of presbytery and of the larger church. (Based on G-3.0307)

To ensure that these guiding principles are being followed, those responsible on behalf of presbytery for the oversight and review of the ministry of particular worshipping congregations should discuss with those sessions the quality of worship, the standards governing it, and the fruit it is bearing in the life of God's people as they proclaim the gospel and communicate its joy and justice (W-1.4002.)

III. BASIC ASSUMPTIONS UNDERLYING THE VISITS.

When will the triennial visits occur? Ordinarily, the visit will happen as part of a stated session meeting, at whatever is the regular meeting of that church's session. The visit should last 45 minutes to an hour.

Who will be visiting? Ordinarily, a pastor and elder, at least one of whom is a current COM member.

Will they also visit with the pastor(s)? Yes, the pastors are members of the session.

What will the visit include? (See “outline of a visit” below)

Will there be a written report of the visit? Yes, a 1-page written report that will go to the COM and the session that was visited.

Will our visitors join the congregation for worship? Yes, if the session meeting happens near the time of regular worship services.

Can the session have more visits with presbytery visitors? Yes, COM representatives and presbytery staff will be glad to make additional visits to the session.

IV. THE VISIT

Open with prayer for the session, the church and the Presbytery’s “mission and ministry.”

Introduction – visitors – session.

Explain the purpose of the visit. Refer to I and II – “Discussing the mission and ministry of the church.”

The questions

Thank the session for meeting with the visiting team.

Close with prayer.

V. SUGGESTIONS FOR THE VISITORS

The team should be comprised of at least two persons, a minister and elder, one should be a member of the Committee on Ministry.

Arrangements to visit the session should be made in advance, preferably in writing.

The team should be appropriately attired arriving on agreed time.

If feasible, the team is encouraged to worship with the congregation.

During the visit, it is essential that an atmosphere of sharing, caring and affirming be cultivated. Remember, this is a pastoral visit “to facilitate the relations between congregations, ministers and presbytery...”

- Remember we are there to LISTEN and LEARN.

The visitor(s) should report at the next COM meeting that the visit was made and if there are any significant concerns that require attention.

A copy of the report should be provided to the session visited and the COM Triennial Visit Coordinator.

Appendix I: Role of the COM Liaison in Times of Pastoral Transition

The Role of the Committee on Ministry Liaison in a Time of Pastoral Transition

(Approved by the Committee on Ministry April 2017)

A liaison will be appointed by the Committee on Ministry upon being informed of a pastor's planned departure. The liaison walks alongside the PNC, interim and General Presbyter in guiding, supporting and encouraging the congregation in its transition time.

A liaison will be appointed for the transition of an installed pastor or temporary (Stated Supply) pastor. The steps below will be applied as needed in those differing situations.

Before the announcement of a pastor's departure, it is advantageous for the pastor to be in conversation with the General Presbyter (GP) and allow the GP to be a part of informing the Session so that the GP may assure the leaders of the congregation of the presbytery's support and of the proper steps to take to begin the transition process.

Step One

The liaison, and GP will meet with the Session to provide support and hear concerns. They will:

- Inform the Session of the need to call a congregational meeting to dissolve the pastoral relationship and to inform the COM that such meeting has taken place so that the COM may ask the presbytery to act on such. The GP or a member of the COM may wish to moderate this congregational meeting;
- Attend the first worship service after the pastor leaves (or as soon as possible thereafter) to let the congregation know of the presbytery's support and the proper steps moving forward; the GP often preaches at this service.
- Share appropriate resources with the Session and congregation as needed.
- See that exit interviews are scheduled with the Pastor and the Session by members of the COM.
- Confer with the Session to determine the congregation's immediate need for leadership – full-time or part-time interim or other. When the need for leadership is determined, the Session should form a 3 person Interim search committee to work with the GP and liaison to secure leadership. It is suggested that this work begin quietly as the congregation celebrates the ministry of the current pastor and prepares for his/her departure. Allowing this search to begin immediately will decrease the amount of time the congregation is without pastoral leadership.
- See that the contract for interim leadership is presented to COM for approval. This contract entered into by the Session with an interim is for one year and may be renewed with the consent of all parties – pastor, Session and COM. A copy of an interim agreement in on the PET website.

Step Two

- The Session should be encouraged to wait until interim leadership is in place before electing a Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC). A PNC is a committee of the congregation and is elected by them. Usually an Officer Nominating Committee will present a slate of candidates at a duly called congregational meeting. The interim and the liaison should encourage a wide representation of the active members of the congregation. The size of the PNC should be a matter of conversation between Session and ONC based on the size of the congregation. Candidates should possess a strong sense of vision for the congregation and have the ability and willingness to work collaboratively.
- Upon election, the GP, interim and liaison will work cooperatively to orient the PNC to their duties. Customarily, the GP takes the lead in the first orientation.

Step Three

- The first order of business for the PNC is to conduct a mission study. The interim and the liaison may work closely with the PNC. The On Calling A Pastor Handbook available online at www.pcusa.org/clc is a very valuable resource. The PNC will engage the congregation in those aspects of the mission study deemed appropriate. It is very beneficial for the liaison to stay in conversation with the PNC and the interim in order to develop a good relationship of trust and to be alert to any problems or stalling in the process. It is not required that the PNC be the body to take the lead in the Mission Study process; the Session may select another group to proceed with this function with the PNC elected later.
- When the mission study is complete, the next order of business for the PNC is the preparation of the Ministry Information Form (MIF) copies of which are available at the website listed above.
- When the MIF is complete, it should be submitted to the Session for discussion and approval. The Session will set a range for the effective salary of a new pastor and other aspects of the terms of call. Upon approval by the Session, the PNC will ask for time on the agenda of the next COM meeting for approval of the MIF. The liaison will know the deadlines associated with the COM docket.
- On the COM meeting date, as many PNC members as possible are asked to attend to discuss with COM members the process in writing the MIF, the hopes and aspirations for the future of the congregation under new pastoral leadership. The COM may ask for revisions of the MIF and depending on the extent of such, the PNC may be asked to return to COM at the next meeting.
- Upon approval, the PNC chair will be given a code to be used to enter the MIF on the PCUSA Church leadership Connection (CLC) to begin receiving matches of possible candidates.

Step Four

- The PNC should establish a process for receiving and reviewing the Personal Information Forms (PIF) from pastors seeking a call. Each PNC will determine who will receive the communications (email) from CLC and how that information will be disseminated to the PNC members. The PNC will receive matches based on the MIF and also candidates from self-referrals. The PNC may also determine if other methods of advertisement are necessary or beneficial.

- The PNC will determine a process for analyzing the merits of each candidate, In addition, before interviewing begins, the PNC should decide on the method of interviewing and possible questions to be asked. As the field is narrowed, the PNC may want to travel to the candidate's current call (with all discretion!) or invite the candidate to visit the PNC in the church's hometown. The liaison will assist in securing a neutral pulpit if the PNC wishes to hear the candidate preach in person.
- When the PNC has narrowed the field of candidates to its "finalists," the PNC chair should ask the GP to check with the candidate's GP or Executive Presbyter regarding the candidate for any "red flags" to be considered in their final discernment.

Step Five

- When the PNC is ready to extend a call, the PNC meets with the Session to request a congregational meeting. If the terms of call negotiated by the PNC with the candidate fall outside the amount budgeted by the Session these terms must be discussed and agreed upon to be presented for approval by the congregation. At this point, the PNC does not share the identity of the candidate with the Session.
- Extend the call to the candidate.
- Request to be on the agenda of the Committee on Ministry (COM). The liaison can assist in providing the Examinations policy to give to the candidate outlining those documents that are required (See COM Handbook, Examinations Policy) to be sent to COM and the deadlines for such. Copies should be sent to the current COM moderator and to Dana Hendrix, Office Administrator at dana@presbyteryeasttn.org.
- At that meeting the candidate will be examined and then both the PNC members and the candidate will be asked to discuss fit and process; the COM will then make a recommendation to presbytery. AT this meeting, or [more usually] a subsequent meeting of COM, the PNC and the candidate should submit the names of the teaching elders and ruling elders to serve on the ordination and/or installation commission, along with the date, time and place of the service.
- Upon approval at the COM Meeting, the PNC should ask the Session to call a congregational meeting. At that meeting the PNC will provide information on the candidate and on the terms of call for congregation. At this point it is good for the liaison to assist the PNC in making decisions regarding the customs to be followed on this day; some congregations wish to have the candidate preach a "candidating sermon" and be present after the meeting for a welcome celebration of some kind. Other congregations do not have the candidate present on the day of the vote, but may arrange another prior "meet and greet" time. Care must be given to giving the candidate time to inform his/her current congregation of the move before disseminating the news of the call.
- Upon approval of the congregation, the candidate will appear before PET on the closest date possible for examination and to be made a member of the presbytery. The COM may give the candidate permission to go on the field prior to this approval.
- Following PET approval the service of ordination and/or installation may be held.

Step Six

- CELEBRATE God’s gracious provision and faithfulness to the congregation!
- Consider a “debriefing” with the PNC.
- Discuss with PNC ways they may want to consider (along with the new pastor’s input) ways of supporting the new pastor and his/her family in the first year of ministry.

Appendix J: Debt Assistance Policy

Presbytery of East Tennessee COM Seminary Debt Assistance Policy

Introduction:

The Board of Pensions has established a Seminary Debt Assistance Program to reduce the financial pressures on new teaching elders serving small churches. Helping teaching elders repay their seminary educational debt makes it easier for them to accept positions at small churches and effectively minister to their congregations. Under this program teaching elders who are serving in a full time, called pastoral position can receive a grant of up to $1,500.00 per year, for up to four years, to repay educational debt incurred while seeking a Master of Divinity. A teaching elder may receive up to $6,000.00 over the course of four years.

To qualify as a prospective candidate, you must

- be a teaching elder in your first seven years of ministry
- be serving in a called pastoral position, full time, for a PC(USA) church that has 150 or fewer members and an annual budget of $250,000.00 or less;
- attend a one-day financial planning seminar (Getting in Shape Fiscally), offered by the Board of Pensions at your seminary or presbytery;
- -make application through and receive permission from your presbytery.

Presbyteries that submit applications are required to have a policy on student/clergy indebtedness.

When the Presbytery is the Presbytery of Call:

- 1) Any teaching elder serving a first call following graduation from seminary, who comes with any educational indebtedness, shall be required to show evidence of having attended a financial planning workshop such as a Fiscal Fitness workshop sponsored by the Board of Pensions, or other financial planning workshop. If the teaching elder has not attended such a workshop, he/she shall be required to do so within twelve months of start-up. The cost of the registration fee, accommodation and travel for such a workshop is to be considered a legitimate reimbursable expense from a study leave allowance.
- 2) The Committee on Ministry shall encourage calling congregations to utilize further educational debt reduction as a point in negotiating salary with a prospective pastor who is a recent seminary graduate.

Adopted by COM – October 27, 2015

Appendix K: Family/Parental Leave Policy

Parental Leave Guidelines for the Presbytery of East Tennessee

Approved by the Committee on Ministry April 8, 2008

Introduction: Changes in a pastor's family bring new challenges and new opportunities. These guidelines are meant to help churches discuss, develop and implement policies for Family Leave for pastors when a child joins the family through birth or adoption. These guidelines may also be a stepping stone for policies for an entire church staff. The negotiated leave should be incorporated into the terms of call.

Maternity Leave Eligibility: When a female pastor is to give birth to a child or children or adopt a child or children.

Paternity Leave Eligibility: When a male pastor's wife is to give birth to a child or children or adopt a child or children.

Suggested Terms:

1. A minimum of 8 weeks of Maternity Leave, which could begin before the child's arrival, depending on health issues.
2. A minimum of 2 weeks of Paternity Leave at the time of the child's arrival
3. The church shall continue paying for Board of Pensions dues. Sessions normally grant full salary for the leave. Requests for longer than the recommended term can be arranged, at reduced pay or non-paid.
4. Any earned vacation time, sick time, or compensation for that budget year may be added to the time of maternity/paternity leave, with the concurrence of the Session.
5. While on leave, the pastor is freed from all pastoral duties, including funerals, weddings, session meetings and worship leadership. The church shall assume the cost and responsibility of covering these pastoral duties during the leave.
6. Specific details of the leave should be negotiated by the pastor and session through the personnel committee or, if there is no personnel committee, through session, a reasonable amount of time before the anticipated arrival. The church and the session are encouraged to contact the presbytery and the COM as resources.

Appendix L: Exit Interview Policy

Presbytery of East Tennessee Committee on Ministry Exit Interview Policy

Interviewers:

The Committee on Ministry shall designate a person or persons on the COM to conduct Exit Interviews with both the departing pastor and the Session of the related congregation.

The Exit Interview process shall consist of two COM members. If this is not possible, then one COM member may conduct the interviews.

COM members specializing in Exit Interviews shall be exempt from Triennial Visits made by COM members.

Process:

The Exit Interview shall be conducted with the departing pastor as soon as possible after the announcement of the pastor's concluding date.

The interview with the Session shall be scheduled as soon as possible after the pastor has departed.

Copies of the Exit Interview reports shall be submitted to the Presbytery Office and to the Moderator of the Committee on Ministry.

Following the interviews, when a Liaison has been appointed from the COM to the congregation, the COM will provide a copy of these reports for the Liaison.

Forms for interviews may be found in the Committee on Ministry Handbook Appendices.

Appendix M: Guidelines for Establishing Ordination, Installation, and Commissioning Commissions

The Presbytery of East Tennessee has given authority to the Committee on Ministry to approve commissions for the Ordination and/or Installation of Installed Pastors and the commissioning of Ruling Elders. The Church (or pastor) must furnish to the COM the following for approval at a Meeting of the COM:

Ordination __yes __no Installation __yes __no Commissioning __yes __no

Date: _____ Time: _____ Place: _____

A commission shall be composed of a minimum of 2 Teaching Elders and 2 Ruling Elders plus a fifth person who may be a Teaching Elder or Ruling Elder. These individuals should represent other churches in the presbytery. There may be more than five. Guests of the commission may be invited as corresponding members. It is appropriate to invite the Moderator of the Presbytery to serve as Commission Moderator. If the Presbytery Moderator is unavailable, another moderator may be designated. If needed, all current members of the Committee on Ministry may fill in for a duly elected commission member if a commission member's absence brings the number of members participating to less than 5.

Please list the names of the commission members and guests, along with their ordination status and the name of the congregation they represent:

Guests of the Commission

The pastor to be ordained and/or installed, the PNC (or the Ruling Elder to be commissioned and Session) and the Commission Moderator will work cooperatively to plan the worship service. There are occasions when the Ruling Elder may be commissioned at a presbytery meeting at the recommendation of the Committee on Ministry.

Please return to the moderator of the Committee on Ministry.
